Spot the difference

There are 10 differences to spot, can you name them all?

This week in history

25th April 1956

Elvis Presley has his first number one on the Billboard Pop Singles Chart with 'Heartbreak Hotel' staying number one for 8 weeks.

27th April 1994

South Africans vote in the country's first multiracial parliamentary elections. Nelson Mandela of the ANC is voted by a landslide to be the next President of South Africa and head the new coalition government.

29th April 1958

The Broadway musical 'My Fair Lady' opens for its first night in London, with Rex Harrison as Professor Higgins and Julie Andrews playing Eliza Doolittle. Tickets for the show cost just over £1, the first month is sold out before opening night.

DON'T FORGET IT'S SHERRY TIME AT 3.00 O'CLOCK EVERY DAY!
